Speed King of Washington Shuts Out Chance's Men at 6 to 0.

VISITORS MAKE NO HITS UNTIL SEVENTH

Brilliant Triple Play Is Only Consolation for the Team from New York.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Washington, May 5.-Nine of the Yankees are willing to testify to-night that Walter Johnson is back in form. Chance's men were shut out by Washington this afternoon, the score being 6 to 0, and until the seventh inning not a hit was made

The total of safe blows scored by the Yankees was four, but three of these came after the speed king had eased up. with victory well in hand. The visitors gained some little consolation by rushing through a triple play in the third

Marty McHale, "the Irish Thrush," who had not pitched for the Yankees since his victory over the Athletics on the opening day, returned to the box. He was hit hard, and complained after the game that he still felt a little weak from the attack of tonsillitis which put him on the shell

The field was rein soaked, but Griffith, lusting for victories, would not consent to a postponement. "The Old Fox" soaked the base lines with kerosene and set fire to the oil in order to dry out some of the moisture.

Although Johnson seemed at all times to be working easily, he came within an ace of making a no hit record for himself. One man was out in the seventh and the hit column of the Yankees was still bare, but Jimmy Walsh spoiled the hopes of the Washington fans by lining a clean single to left. After that Johnson simply lobbed the ball over.

Clark Griffith was ready to claim the pennant as soon as the game was over. He had not indulged in the practice for more than a week owing to the poor showing which Johnson made in his las two starts. The pitching star said his sore arm was "coming around."

The triple play of the Yankees was made after two runs had been scored and the bases were still filled.

With the infield drawn in close, Morgan hit a sharp grounder to Maisel, who scooped up the ball and made a fast fling to Sweeney, forcing Gandil at the plate. Sweeney threw to Williams in time to head off Morgan at first. Ainsmith tried to come down to third on the play to first, but Williams made a wonderfully fast throw across the diamond and the runner was nipped by Maisel.

was nipped by Maisel.

Before the triple killing Foster singled and went to third when Truesdale made a fearful mess of Milan's grounder. Gandi laced a liner to left and Foster scored.

Milan reached third, and Gandil took sectored on the throw in. Alnsmith beat out a bunt, and the bases were full. Shanks outsprinted a slow roller to third, which sent Milan home. Then came the mass. sent Milan home. Then came the massa-

TEAMS IN A JAM

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Yankees Now Tied for Second Place with the Athletics.

OPENING DAY FRILLS FOR BROOKLYN FEDS

John M. Ward Says Half of the Seats for Monday's Game Have Been Sold.

By HEYWOOD BROUN.

Of all the local teams only the Yanke got into action yesterday, and as far all Chance's men were concerned they would rather have been included in the rain belt. Walter Johnson, owner of the celebrated sore arm, shut out Farrell's invaders.

Second place in the American League is now in doubt. In Philadelphia the Athletics are placed second in the list, while here the Yankees are accorded the honor. As far as the percentages go, the two teams are tied. St. Louis and Washington are crowding closely behind. No games were played in the National

The Tip Tops of Brooklyn are going to adhere to convention in their opening next Monday. In fact, they may be said to be reactionary, for a flag raising, now a thing of the past at the Polo Grounds, will be included in the ceremontes. Lewis Pounds, Borough President of Brooklyn. has been drafted to throw out the first ball. He pitches underhand and is a righthander.

There will be daylight fireworks, but it is to be hoped that the skyrockets will have no subtle, malicious effect upon either of the opposing pitchers. Of course Tom Seaton will be saved for the contest, John M. Ward says that half of the seats have been sold already.

Frank Chance will not be with his Yankees when they play their last same against Washington to-day, but will meet the team to-morrow in Boston. Al Demaree and Pat Ragan probably will be the opposing pitchers when the Giants and Brooklyn clash at the Polo Grounds to-day. What has become of the old-fashloned ball player who used to take off his hat when the fans cheered him? Some of the ball players around these parts say that they don't care much about stealing second now that Meyers, Sweeney and Mathewson have cheapened
